

THE INSTITUTE OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL STUDIES

CAMBRIDGE

Michael Kitson

St. Catherine's College

Michael Kitson is a Lecturer in business economics at the Judge Business School, a Fellow of St Catharine's College, Cambridge, a Research Associate of the Centre for Business Research (CBR), Cambridge, and Associate Director of the National Competitiveness Network at the Cambridge-MIT Institute (CMI).

His research interests include macroeconomic policy, corporate performance, regional economics and technology transfer and the commercialisation of science and he is currently directing an Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) research project on the challenges facing the biotechnology and aerospace sectors in the UK.

Mr. Kitson recently provided evidence as an expert witness for the House of Lords enquiry into globalisation and he is a member of the Editorial Boards of Regional Studies and the Cambridge Journal of Economics.

His publications include the The Political Economy of Competitiveness (with J.Michie) and articles in the Economic Journal, Cambridge Journal of Economics, Economic History Review, Scottish Journal of Political Economy, Review of International Political Economy, Bulletin of Economic Research, Regional Studies and Urban Studies. More Information is available at www.michaelkitson.com