

THE INSTITUTE OF ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL STUDIES

CAMBRIDGE

Dr. Shailaja Fennell

Assistant Director, Development Studies Committee
Affiliated Lecturer, Department of Land Economy and the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge
Fellow of Jesus College, Cambridge

Education

Ph.D., Economics, University of Cambridge
M.Phil., Economics, university of Cambridge
M.Phil., Economics, University of Delhi
M.A., Economics, University of Delhi
B.A. (Hons), Economics, University of Delhi

Dr. Fennell's major research interests include agrarian transformation, trade and technology transfer, intra-household negotiations, economics of education, and comparative economic history. She has been engaged in setting up a research network on the provision of education in developing countries and researching the consequences of rent-seeking in sugar co-operatives in the State of Maharashtra, India

Publications

Law and Development: perspectives from Asia. Forthcoming.

Ethics of Population Control, in The Dictionary of Development Economics, Edward Elgar. 2004.

'Gender relations and economic performance in the household in Asia'
in Proceedings on Development and Future Studies 4, 1998

'Ageing and pensions policy in China'
in P. Johnson and P. Lloyd-Sherlock, eds., Populations and Pensions Policy, STICERD, London School of Economics, 1996